

COURTNEY WILBURN I have a passion for building web applications and infrastructure.
cjbwburn@gmail.com (215) 285-7695 cjbwburn.com
ID
SKILLS
Web Development	HTML, CSS, Javascript, PHP, Ruby, Python
Public Speaking	Agile Web Development Project Management Back End Development
II
EMPLOYMENT
Lead DevOps Engineer, The Winecoffer, A New York Times Company
Winecoffer began make-lead and delivery team 1.1k. Provide technical guidance on product and platform 2017-19 – Present architecture. Improved local development and deployment workflows for product-based engineering teams. Led transition of open Winecoffer applications from monolithic to microservice architecture. Created custom server-side feature flagging process. Standing up microservices on AWS and GCP platforms. Assist in transitioning product engineering teams from waterfall workflow to continuous delivery.
• Attended Data for Black Lives 2019 Conference
• Featured on GitHub Blog in February 2019
• Featured on Function Path Podcast
• On frequent List of Most Influential Technologies in Philadelphia
Developer, GS World
Developed various, static, and web applications for a variety of clients. Spearheaded move from Vagrant to2015-02 – 2017. Doctor for local development. Built and maintained systems infrastructure internally and externally. Built 10 desktop, and maintained enterprise applications and services in the AWS ecosystem. Moved projects from ad hoc deployment to Jenkins/CICD. Formalized DevOps best practices. Migrated web applications, microservices and APIs from PaaS to AWS and other platforms.
• Attended LG2FO Tech & Innovation Summit at Google DC Spring 2017
• Sponsored White House LG2FO Tech and Innovation Summit 2017 & 2018
• Spoke at Meetup 2018
• Spoke At Philly Tech Week Dev Day
• Presented with Mayor of Philadelphia on Civic Tech for Philly Tech Week 2017
• Presented for Tech in Color Philly Tech Week event
• Spoke at WordCamp US 2016
• Spoke at Creative Morning Philadelphia March 2017
Freelance Web Developer, Self-Employed
Developed websites, applications, and custom CMS (Content Management Systems) for non-profit and2009-08 – Present community clients.
• Developed custom RFPMS (request for proposal management system) for evaluating and scoring RFPs.
• Created responsive websites.
Web Application Developer, Wharton Computing, Wharton School of Business, University of Pennsylvania
Worked with team on developing a replacement for the Wharton Course Registration application. Built custom2011-03 – 2015. front-end and middle ware for LISTSERV product. Support Wharton Computing custom applications and2015 services. Provide on-call application support as needed.
• Migrated Wharton core applications using PHP to internally hosted git instance
• Implemented local development workflow changes to incorporate all of VMs
• Scripted and updated Chef cookbooks to configure core Wharton applications in the cloud
System Analyst, Dermatology Information Systems, School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, Department of Dermatology Built custom clinical, research, and administrative applications. Maintain Department Websites. Maintain and2007-07 – 2011. upgrade research, clinical, and administrative databases and applications. Perform hardware and software2013 updates. Provide backup hardware, software, and network support for Apple Macintosh and PC users in clinical and research settings. Provide software support for Electronic Medical Record application in Dermatology Outpatient Clinic.
Communication and IS Administrator/Technology Officer/Senior Technology Officer, International Student Exchange Program (ISEP)
Performed hardware and software upgrades on networked office computers. Provided training and basic2005-12 – 2007. technical support to staff and member schools. Assessed and recommended hardware, software, and2007 contracting opportunities. Prepared and tracked annual hardware, software, and technology training budget. Maintained applications and databases. Wrote and executed queries and reports for user needs. Administered IS, Exchange, SQL Server 2000, Terminal Services, and network file servers. Managed nightly server tape backups. Maintained dynamic content for Internet website. Managed web intranet development, design, and contracts. Served as organizational and technical project manager in development of a new information system.
• Began as IS Administrator, eventually promoted twice during my time there, first as "Technology Officer", and again as "Senior Technology Officer".
File Clerk, Total Document Solutions
Supported and maintained a large SQL Server 2000 database for TDS client, Zuckerman, Spawder, LLP 2005-10 – 2005. Provided in-house training and assistance to legal secretaries while transitioning to new, internet-based2012 universal legal filing system.
Research Data Assistant II, Johns Hopkins School of Medicine
Assisted with research projects and developed study protocols in the department of Hospital Epidemiology2004-09 – 2005. and Infection Control. Created MS Access front end/SQL Server 2000 backend database for data collection2009 and analysis on research studies. Conducted trainings on nosocomial infections and infection control for clinical staff at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Collected environmental samples from patients for analysis. Obtained Institutional Review Board approval for research projects.
Office Manager, SPARIS Forensics for Science
Organized, monitored, and day-to-day office activities. Maintained network, server and provided technical2004-08 – 2004. support to staff. Ordered and inventoried all office supplies and training materials.
HIV Prevention Counselor, Mazzoni Center
Coordinated the implementation of an in-agency rapid HIV testing initiative. Assisted Mazzoni Center in2002-08 – 2004. obtaining State of Pennsylvania Level 2 laboratory certification for the administering of exams for blood-borne2005 diseases. Worked with clinical staff on development of rapid HIV testing procedures and trained clinic staff on protocols. Sat on a municipal working group to implement rapid testing across Philadelphia. Provided individual HIV counseling and testing services to a diverse clientele at an HIV clinic and at off-site locations. Maintained MS Access client referral database.
Hall Advisor, Bryn Mawr College
Organized hall activities and served as a resource to dorm residents.
2000-08 – 2002.
Teaching Assistant, Bryn Mawr College
Proctored examinations and assisted students in physical anthropology lab sessions. Assisted professor in2002-01 – 2003. grading of mid-term and semester examinations. Was responsible for human skeletal remains and replicas for2005 laboratory use.
Intern, University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology
Reorganized skeletal collections in physical anthropology section. Match ancient and modern skeletal replicas2001-03 – 2001. for educational use at the University of Pennsylvania casting program. Created digital casting of modern2008 human skeletal remains for the Museum. Completed digital documentation of the Samuel Morton skeletal collection at the University of Pennsylvania.
Intern, Lancaster Youth Recreation and Information Center
Assisted in organization of youth LGBT conference. Developed group therapy, and in the development of a youth outreach2000-08 – 2000. program through an assisted in development of website for community, program, and organizational initiatives using DreamWeaver and Fireworks software packages. Led beginning PC skills classes for youth in afternoon drop-in center.
II
TESTIMONIALS
Provided Upon Request
References provided upon request.
III
INTERESTS
Baseball	Current
Baseball	Current
Cooking	Current
Traveling	Current
Xymurgy	Current